

Application to Reprint: February 5, 2008 Election

We invite newspapers to reproduce the nonpartisan Easy Voter Guide to help all Californians prepare for the upcoming February 5, 2008 Election. The community-edited and expert reviewed content will feature succinct summaries of all statewide propositions, statements from Presidential Candidates plus general information about voting.

With your agreement to the following terms, we will send you, free of charge, a link to an FTP site where you can download the Easy Voter Guide for the February 5, 2008 Election, as well as the colors, fonts and formatting used in the development of the guide. The FTP site will be available for newspapers beginning December 14. For more information please contact Elizabeth Leslie at eleslie@lwvc.org or 916-442-7215.

Your signature below affirms your agreement to these commitments:

- To present this material in a nonpartisan manner for nonpartisan purposes.
- To avoid creating the impression that the Easy Voter Guide either endorses or opposes any proposition or candidate.
- To give acknowledgment to the Easy Voter Guide Project and www.easyvoter.org. A noticeable link to this website must be provided if content is featured on a web page. You may choose buttons for linking at www.easyvoter.org.
- Not to share any part of the Easy Voter Guide with another party.
- If only using segments, to include all the material pro and con on an issue, and all of the candidates for a given office.
- Send 2 copies of your publication to the LWVC - 801 12th Street Suite 220 Sacramento, CA 95814.
