Sacramento – The League of Women Voters of California is pleased to announce the formation of a new local League in Placer County. The public is invited to the first meeting to find out more about the League of Women Voters and how the League makes a difference in your community.

The League of Women Voters of Placer County is hosting a meeting on Saturday, January 5th at 10:00 am. This meeting is open to the public and interested parties are encouraged to attend. The meeting will be held at the Maidu Community Center located at 1550 Maidu Drive in Roseville, CA 95661.

League members will present information on the state ballot measures for the California Presidential Primary Election on February 5, 2008 as well as an overview of the new League of Women Voters organization in Placer County. Admission is free. For more information, please contact Kathy Souza at (916) 791-5187 or via email at kathysouza2003@yahoo.com.

The League of Women Voters, a nonpartisan political organization, encourages informed and active participation in government and influences public policy through education and advocacy.

There are over 70 local Leagues and over 11, 000 members throughout California. To find out more about the League of Women Voters of California and the benefits of membership, please visit www.lwvc.org today.
